TELEGRAMS
(via Galveston)

Paris, 27th.—Another famous Anarchist, named Kavalich, fell into the hands of the police last night, making now 22 prisoners, in all. The Government has taken a relentless search for all Anarchists, and has resolved to expel them from France. The Bill before the Chambers in reference to dynamite, which was amended, imposing the penalty of death, not only on all those who cause explosions, but also on those who may be found placing explosives in the streets.

Princess Knapikoff, the celebrated Russian anarchist, has been interviewed by reporters, to whom he has expressed the opinion that the Social Revolution was about to break out, and that dynamite would be used on an ever increasing scale in the cause of Liberty.

Berlin, 27th.—The Emperor returned here to-day, and was enthusiastically received when passing through the streets. It is announced that he will resign the adjutant-general of the Reichstag and Landtag to-morrow.

In political circles a change in the Education policy is considered certain.
Breiten, 27th.—The North German Lloyd's senior Elder has been elected and saved.

Rome, 27th.—The Pope gave an audience and his blessing today to a Mexican delegation. It is stated that another American Cardinal will be created.

London, 27th.—The visiting at the Durham coal mines has ceased.

Sydney, 27th.—Horrible details have been received of acts of cannibalism in Queensland, where appalling war exists.

Vienna, 27th.—The Austro-Hungarian Lend of 100 million florins will be launched by Rothschild in May next.

Barcelona, 28th.—There was a great fire in the port last night. Seven vessels were burned to the water's edge and the fire spread from burning oil.

On board an American ship laden with kerosene, which spread over the water.

The ships destroyed were the corvet-tes, Tityan, the steamers Casilla, Alono, Walley, Esmen and the lighter Carman with a crew from the warship Leyta.

On board. The losses are enormous.

Paris, 28th.—Another explosion has taken place in the Europe barracks, ten persons being seriously injured and ten slightly. The general indignation of the Parisians is again manifested. The papers call on the police for an energetic campaign against the Anarchists.
